GalileoDiscovery and Library Services

by Engineering Libraries Staff

is the University of Padova Library search tool

With just one query, you can find the materials for your research, regardless of their format (books, articles, journals, etc.)

With a single search it is possible to retrieve at the same time, in print and electronic format:

- Books
- Journals
- articles
- multimedia resources
- encyclopedic entries
- technical standards
- statistics
- contributions to open access scientific research
- ...

- GalileoDiscovery
  - Find out more
  - Guide to GalileoDiscovery
  - Tutorial on GalileoDiscovery
  - Off campus connection
  - Document delivery
  - Interlibrary loan

You can scroll a list by Author, Title, Series, Dewey call numbers, Library of Congress call numbers, and Call numbers

E.g. You want to search for the volumes of the Environment, development, and public policy series: select from the drop-down menu "Series" and enter the title

To see the titles of the series you have to click on the name

The screenshot shows the search results for the series 'Environment, development, and public policy'. The table lists the series name and the number of records for each. The 'Environment, development, and public policy' series has 4 records.

Environment & assessment	1 record
Environment, development, and public policy	4 records
Environment, development, and public policy. Cities and development	1 record
Environment, development and public policy. Public policy and social services	1 record

You can also access the menu as an authenticated user

The default Search All is the widest.

It is however possible to select some already established sets of materials by scrolling the menu on the right:

- ① Libraries Catalogue: to search books and journals
- ② Electronic Resources: to search only electronic resources
- ③ Padua Research Archive: for the University's research products
- ④ Ebsco: to query only the databases of the Ebsco platform

- 1 Allows to combine multiple elements and choose which element to search for each: Title, Author/creator, Subject, ISSN, Dewey classification
- 2 For each field the options available are: contains, starts with, is (exact)
- 3 On the right you can also specify: Type of material, Language and Dates

The screenshot displays the GalileoDiscovery Advanced search interface. At the top, the 'Search Profile' is set to 'Search everything'. The main search area is divided into two sections. The left section, labeled 'Search filters', contains a search line with a blue box around 'Any field' (annotated with a blue circle 1), a yellow box around the 'contains' dropdown (annotated with a yellow circle 2), and a text input field 'Enter a search term'. Below this is a second search line with a blue circle 1 around the 'AND' operator, followed by 'Any field', 'contains', and another 'Enter a search term' field. A '+ ADD A NEW LINE' button is at the bottom left. The right section, outlined in green and annotated with a green circle 3, contains three filter groups: 'Material Type' with a dropdown set to 'All items', 'Language' with a dropdown set to 'Any language', and 'Start Date' and 'End Date' each with 'Day', 'Month', and 'Year' dropdowns.

By clicking on My Favorites you can access the list of records saved during the search and you can organize the list of saved results by grouping them with labels

Multiple labels can be associated with the same record.

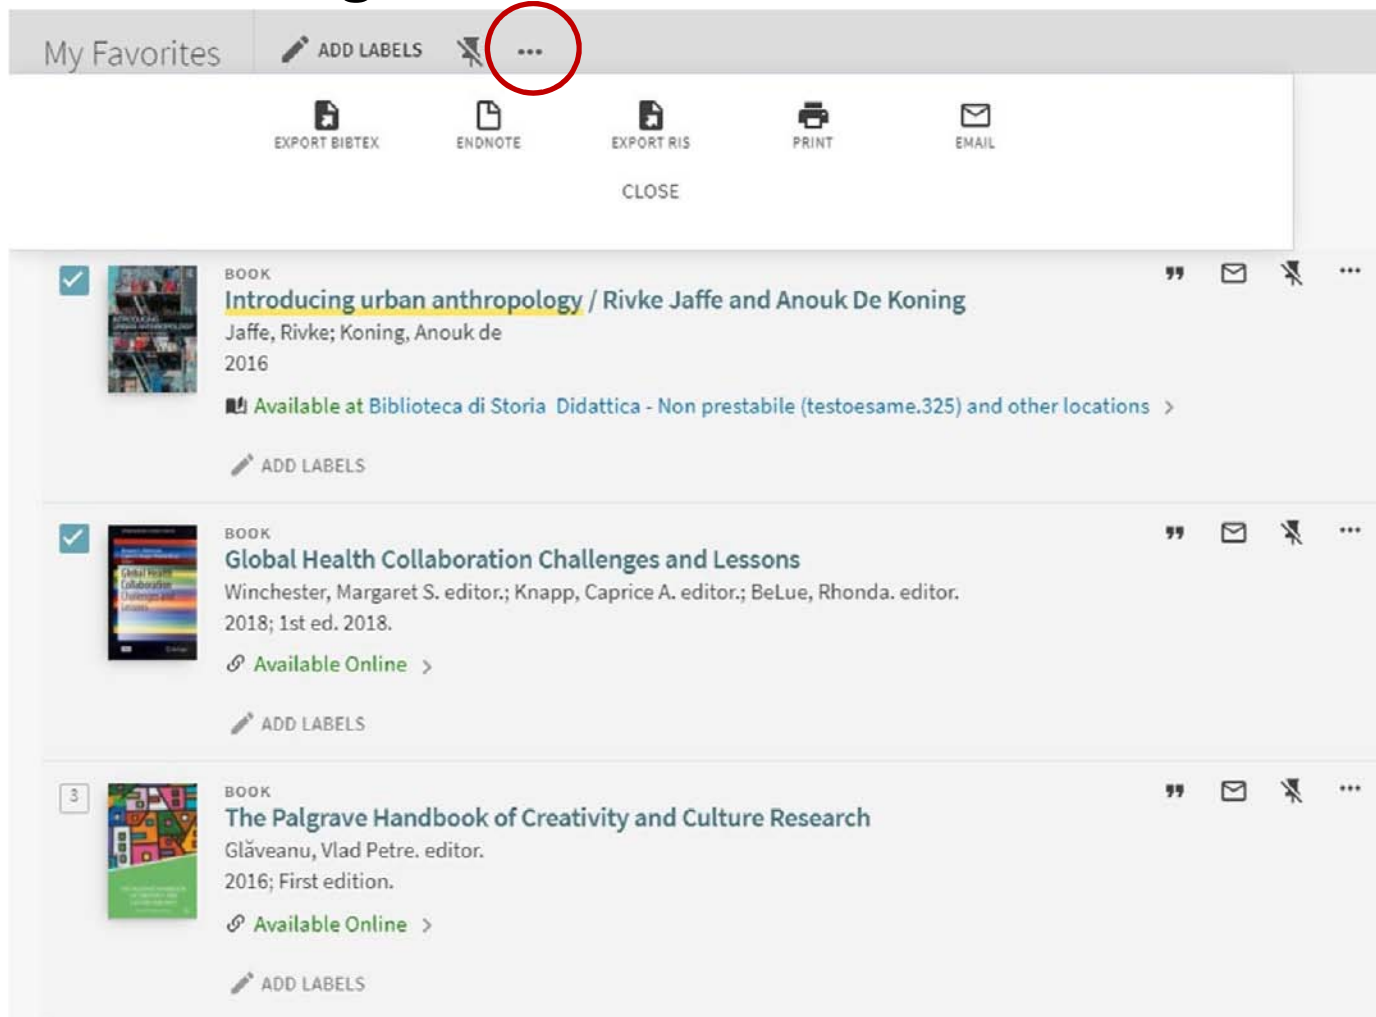

If you delete a "copy" from the general list, it is permanently deleted from My Favorites and no trace remains, even if it has a label.

"Unlabeled copies" are saved records to which no labels have been associated.

They are not folders, but tags!

Alternatively, you can export all or part of the records by selecting them and clicking on the three dots

The screenshot shows the 'My Favorites' section of the GalileoDiscovery interface. At the top, there is a toolbar with icons for 'ADD LABELS', a trash can, and a red circle around three dots. Below this toolbar, there are buttons for 'EXPORT BIBTEX', 'ENDNOTE', 'EXPORT RIS', 'PRINT', and 'EMAIL', along with a 'CLOSE' button. The main area displays a list of three book records, each with a checkbox, a book cover, and a 'three dots' menu icon.

Research strategies 1

- Wildcard characters

In GalileoDiscovery you can use the asterisk as a truncation character - eg. cultur * for culture, cultural, and culturally - and the question mark for any character - eg. wom? n for woman, women

- Exact phrase

You can use quotation marks “ ” for the exact phrase - eg. "Legislative Decree 19 September 1994 n 626". When using this type of strategy in quick search avoid adding other logical operators. If you want to combine logical operators and exact phrase use the advanced search

Research strategies 2

- Use of parentheses

When using more than one operator, Ex Libris recommends using parentheses to clarify precedence

It is preferable to use the logical NOT operator at the end of the search string

The screenshot shows the homepage of the Engineering Libraries Services – Digital Library website. The header features the University of Padua logo, the SBA logo, and a search bar. Below the header, there are four main navigation sections: Digital Library, What are you looking for?, About you, and About us. The Digital Library section lists resources like EasySearch, Off-campus connection, and Reference management. The What are you looking for? section lists Books and journals, Articles and databases, Citations, Interlibrary loan, Books in alternative format, Faq, and Help. The About you section lists Students, Scholars, and Visitors. The About us section lists Libraries (ITA), Using the library, The University Library System, The University Library Centre, The Technical-Scientific Committee, and Projects. Below these sections, there is a yellow banner with the text "#DigitalSolidarity" and a paragraph about the growing need for information regarding Covid-19. Below the banner, there are four buttons: Noticeboard, Open or free access online resources, Online resources for distance learning, and Open data. At the bottom, there is a large banner for GALILEO DISCOVERY with a city skyline and social media icons. To the right of the banner, there is a "Need help?" button and two yellow buttons: "News from digital world" and "News from University of Padova website".

Self-service scanning, photocopying and printing

You can make your own photocopies with your student card.

Your account is linked to your University ID card.

The screenshot shows the Ricoh myPrint login interface. At the top left is the Ricoh logo with the tagline 'imagine. change.'. At the top right is a language dropdown menu set to 'English' and a 'Help' link. In the center, there is a graphic of a laptop displaying a red padlock icon. To the right of the graphic, the text 'myPrint' is displayed in a large, bold, red font. Below this, there are two input fields: 'User name:' and 'Password:'. A red 'LOGIN' button is positioned below the password field. At the bottom, there are two links: 'Forgot your password?' and 'Create account'.

Remember!

Reproduction of published materials is subjected to copyright law. You can photocopy only 15% of a book or an issue.
